1. Yea, the word of The Lord comes forth, comes forth, came forth and comes forth. And comes forth now through all who will, who will let Me slide through their lips, who will let Me come through their being; who will let Me form the thoughts in My mind and flow through their mind; bypassing their mind, being their mind, letting Me say, be and flow what I want to. I love you and I give you Me unrestrictedly, unrestrively, unrestricted. I flow all to you now and I flow all to My all; and all of My all who want Me may be submitted and drink offering'd and flow and glow in the fullness now of My river coming forth at torrents never experienced, never expected, never imagined, never acclimated to what, yea, I have wanted to do centuries, millennia's, millenniums. I give you Me. Volumes and volumes and libraries and protectorates none come forth now in Me, provision of only Me; restricted not, but flowing provision from My throne; My all, My body bringing to Me that for which I want done. Yea, My chest opens this day, My chest opens this day; Joash chest (2 Kings 12:4-14) not, but yea, similar and manifold more so.
2. Yea, My body comes and brings My body to My body and brings ways and forms and fashions of only Me and restricted not you allow them to operate in Me.
3. I love you and I come forth and I come forth in gold and sorrow not. I come forth in rivers of love and purity tainted not by motives of self-preservation, self-perpetuation, self-proclamations of self being God-like, being God; their mind thinking they are over My Spirit. Bah humbug!
4. Oh see Me in what I am saying, and what I have given, and how I have called out and how I have given My man, My son, My words; displaying Me, the fullness of My glory and, yea, even more so coming. I love you.
5. Restrict not your thinking to the lowly little that become My Mighty Many. Arise in Me you lowly little who have thought only in your mind, who have let your mind rule you; mandates of mere men and their minds who dirt are and lower; unmoted by Me forsaking My motives, forsaking My love which taints not; but which tears at the flesh and provides sinew of My Spirit, My body, My all together lovely, My which has molecular structure with neutrons and protons of only Me; electrons circling My throne.
6. You, you, Me; Me, you in Covenant that comes forth in completeness known and understood in the fullness from Melchizedek on through My Melchizedeks now who in The Order of Melchizedek arise in Me to be Me and speak Me fearlessly, not afraid of any arrow, any sphere, or walking barefoot over the coals of men's critique. I love you. I love you, My barefoot ones, My transparent ones, My who all together lovely are who now hide nothing and fear not the interrogation of councils; but yea, stand with emotion in only Me, speaking My words, My words, My words first person, My first person words, My speaking, My speaking that never stopped, should have not stopped, never did stop, but [was] squelched and quelled by councils many who confused and conquered and dominionized themselves and their kingdoms over My freedom.

7. My freedom comes forth in rivers now and My river rises, My river rises, My river in ankles not; yea, calves, knees and bodies immersed. My river flows in turbulence not but in peace while the turbulent looks on, and the turbulent cannot conceive of My peace now operating in the world of turbulence.

8. No, My Order stands; My Order, My Order, My Order of Melchizedek, My Order of Me, My molecular structure, My which glows in the radiance of the beauty of the power of My word.

9. Yea, My judgment comes and My judgment divides; My judgment conquers and on My right and left will be all; no one in the center but Me, My Son. I love you. I give you Me and all divides, all comes forth, all laid up for just Me; My words, My works, My works already done. My obedient coming forth to steward Me, to shepherd Me. Shepherd not in control, but to receive Me for Mine; elevating each other like has never been seen, never before imagined, bowing to only Me; Me, My Father, The One and Only Father, The Father of one blood, The Father of lights, The Father in whom there is no shadow or variableness or turning, who knows not what it is to go back on My word; who issues and proclaims My word and issues through proclamations and proclaims through My issue and the issue of My words and the words of My issue: My issue coming forth in tangible, visible form now in power, grace and glory. And My authority all, all, all-permeating, permeating, permeating every position, every position, every vocation. Every innovation comes forth now of Me with My name, My copy right, My trademark, My patent; Me, My name on it as the source, the King, the conqueror, the deliverer, the giver of life, the giver of creativity. Realms of only Me now.

10. I love you. I come and I conquer and the Mighty Many come forth. Yea, cataclysmic-ized and yet walking in such peace, turbulence all around. Fear not My flock, fear not My family, fear not for eating at My table you will, you do, you have; yea, evermore so. In light, in frequency; yea, unchallenged. Yea, daily coming before Me, garnering, gathering and eating the greatest with Me, eating that which magnifies, eating which reveals, eating that which connects and sinews.

11. Oh, My, I love you who will not fear Me nor be afraid of Me but fear only forfeiting what I call to you now in. I give you Me, My Mighty Many. I give you Me, Leadership. I give you leaders to lead. To lead leadership. And Leadership be. And leadership come forth. Coming forth in My leadership. Coming forth in My leadership who only leaders make, knowing I have no other. My leaders are, leaders be. Leaders come now and submit in submission to only Me; hearing My ways, hearing My word, wanting life more, conquering time and space, knowing I Am, and believing, believing; Now operating in the fullness that I am, they are, we are one. My body resides in My body; how plain, how simple, how profound. I love you. My mind, My Mine, My Mighty Many letting My Mine come forth unrestricted; DNA replete, the fall of man reversed, reversed, reverting into only Me; Me being Me fully in My creation. I come forth, I call and I order My universe, My universe of universes and all universes now under My neck, under My hand, in My hand. I love you.

12. See Me in all that I say, all that I give; and yea, only the beginning, only the beginning of the yea's; beholding, the beginning of the beholds. I love you. Beholding behold-ment of only Me; yea, that I have given, that I charge, that I come, that I invite, that I request, that in I demote no one desperate for Me; restricting Me not; allowing Me to move, to move, to move in the works, the pattern I provided, that I have, that I have clean-slated now for you, with nothing in your way.

13. See Me. See Me, My Son, The Father of Lights; yea, us one, walking on water, conquering all, focused on only Me.

14. Problems? Provision.

15. Problems? Revelation.

16. Problems? Munchies? (laughter) Munchies for My Mighty Many who gobble up the deceit, the deception, taking authority over it and demising it in the power of My glory.

17. Death to the disciples of darkness; watch Me. Watch Me cataclysmically separate the sheep from the goats; the receivers from the rejecters; those who will re-unite in the fullness of Me and sit at My table; jump and twirl, swing, walk together the Emmaus Roads of universes, of centuries, but knowing face, My face, My face, My hands, My love; altogether riddled not, but in perfect harmony and complete revelation, eternally. I love you. I love you, I give you Me, all. I give you all of Me; My pattern protected not, patented not, corrected not; perfect in statue, perfect in pattern, prefect of only Me. My pattern now recognize and come forth in My pattern, My altogether lovely, My all together who will receive Me and the words of My mouth this day. I love you.

18. Grow, glow, seek Me while I may be found so easily, so easily while I am calling, as I call, as I invite; yea, as I even beg, laying all of Me before you unrestricted, unhindered. Come into Me, My belabored who labor so and are so burdened down with the cares of this world. Yea, did I not say that all provision is Mine and My responsibility? Can you add a cubit to your height? A day to your life? Do you know what time is? Do you know what time it is or what it is even made of?

19. I love you. I give you Me; restrict Me not, fly with Me. Let Me come and call and conquer restraints all in you; My Christs: My body, My body, My Son died for My body to be My body and to come forth in My design of My body, My son I love you. Come forth in My design as I correct, as I cataclysmically correct and the receivers reject not but embrace Me in My fullness, and the rejecters receive not and damnation receive. I love you and I give you Me. I come and I conquer all doubt and unbelief for those who will open to Me and restrict Me not; let Me not be little in their eyes; belief creating. I love you.

20. I love you. See Me, start Me, image Me, project Me, allow Me to speak in every situation and every conversation; and yea, every session open with Me--I love you--trust, fear not, high dive My all and release Me fully into the fullness of My all together lovely. Oh My, Oh Me, Me, Me'd ones coming forth in such joy and laughter, knowing provision only dreamed of. Maturity sought, excelled in, received in quarters of only Me you are. Received, given, received. Thank you. Thank you for filling My quarters with My words, with My teachers now who come forth, who come forth, who come forth; Saris, turbans, and paraphernalia notwithstanding.

21. I love you and I thank you that you are no longer afraid and you think for Me, you thing as Me, your mind open to My mind, and all correction of only Me. I love you. I expand, I expand you now, I expound, and I explicitly remind you of My promises, My years, My life, My notes to you on yellow paper many, My promises to your son, your daughter, your seed, My family: one; residing there in loveliness, altogether lovely.

22. I love you. I give you Me, My Covenant complete.

23. Arise, arise, arise, I say arise. Arise in joy, arise in laughter, arise in what comes forth in you even this day, this day, this day, third day, seventh day, My day, your day, our day together: one; day of days, days again and again. I love you.

24. I provide yachts, docks, seas of only Me, lakes, mechanics and creators of flying devices now of only Me; now, today, this day.

25. See Me and map Me and know that technology and transits come forth to do all I have said, all I have given, all I have received unto Myself in you. Gate open, door open, mind open to only Me, letting My mind come forth in you; fully fully-ized, DNA complete. No lack, all provision, maturity, love permeated, love penetrated, love Damascus'd of only Me. I give you things past, present and future promised. I love you. Sealing Me, concealing Me not, and not a word of My mouth, Mr. Transparency, this day.

26. I love you. I respect you. Thank you for respecting My body, My all together lovely, and thought of unlovely some, all together Mine. My family, we break bread together, My Covenant enjoy, Me.

27. Rest. All comes, all is, all joy for My brethren: My brothers, My sisters, My family, your family, our family: across globes of righteousness and unrighteousness not, fullness of Me. I love you. Rays of only Me emitting; My projection screen be. I love you. Good Day.

28. The immediacy of My mandate, mandates, is mandatory. My all together lovely in the balance, hanging in the valley of decision, immobile so many, mesmerized by maintenance methods, materialism, in motor skills of not Me.

29. I come and I call and I release and war emerges for the scrambling now that takes place for men to find their place, knowing that they were lost, misplaced, on maps of cartographers erroneous. I loved you. See what time it is: My timetable, My clock, My seals broken, My trumpeters trumpeting music, sound, war.

30. Loveliness, restlessness increases now until My resting place they find for their individuality in Me, predestined, foreknew, foreknown, forescribed in My heavenlies, in My heart, in My mind, My Christs. I love you.

31. My all together lovely helpers, My all together helpers, My helpers who are all together and lacking nothing now come and call and beg to be a part; My lines forming. See Me and doubt not. My pictures increase, My metaphors sharp, My vocabulary increases, and My diction dramatizes the ugly and the beautiful; all together not, but separate and separating. War ensues. My! I love you.

32. Three days, yes; My three days of only Me, never before experienced; so open to Me and My Mine. I love you. Tombs of only Me, resurrection prescribed, delighted in light-emitted radiance and the fullness of My form, My creation so lovely. I love you. I fashion and I form My creation, My creation emits My radiance in motives of sinew'd love, tendons and tenderness of only Me; exercising My rites, My authority; My demands not; delicacies, yes.

33. Intimacy more. See Me. See Me in you. See Me see you. See you in Me. Turmoil not. Perfect Peace. I love you. Thank you. Again and again I thank you; I bless you, I thank you. Laugh with only Me; My laughter coming forth in all that you have ever dreamed: My gift, My gifts, My so waiting to be received by My so many. I love you.

Good day.
